To Whom It May Concern:

Circadence relies on Phase2 Advantage to ensure successful learning journeys for our clients in education and enterprise verticals. Circadence has engaged Phase2 Advantage on multiple occasions to create cybersecurity training courses, instructor teaching aids, and learner materials for our customers both domestically in the United States and internationally.

Phase2 Advantage has been instrumental in ensuring the success of our cybersecurity learning platform by creating the highest quality course content and training materials while crafting courses that teach relevant, practical and targeted content to help our customers achieve their workforce development goals. The level of subject matter expertise and the quality of outcomes that Phase2 Advantage produces is exceptional.

I highly recommend Phase2 Advantage's courses and services. Phase2 Advantage will quickly become a committed extension of your cybersecurity team and your go to resource for achieving your learning objectives and upskilling your cybersecurity workforce.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Laurie Webb-DesJardins
